TIGER 1974
Ipswich High School
Ipswich, Massachusetts

In a world where men live touched with hostility and governed by indifference to each other,

it is a comforting thought to know there are still certain special people who bring out the beauty, and who encourage integrity, in others; who do it unselfishly and with feeling. These people are rare,
and thus it is fitting that we,
the Class of 1974
should dedicate our yearbook to just such a person, as Brother Bob Russell, in sincere appreciation of all he has been to us.

We double back without thinking, wordlessly silent, even awestruck. It comes down to this:
The shoreline has altered much; dunes have shifted & crumpled, high tide laps their bases, snowfence and sandcastle

barriers have diminished and washed away. Still there is a completeness,

Last but not least, something deserves to be said about the 1974 field hockey team, who had one of its best seasons ever. Due to a gross error on the part of our photographer, we are unable to provide pictures, and for this we apologize. We hope this lack of pictures will not diminish the importance - and the memory - of the '74 team's achievements.

THE PEOPLE...

hear: This is the true song the ocean sings:
to stretch toward selfness
yet
erecting no fences; keeping whole

the soft, unbroken lines of nature's earthscape;
to travel
from sphere to sphere,
increasing the scope

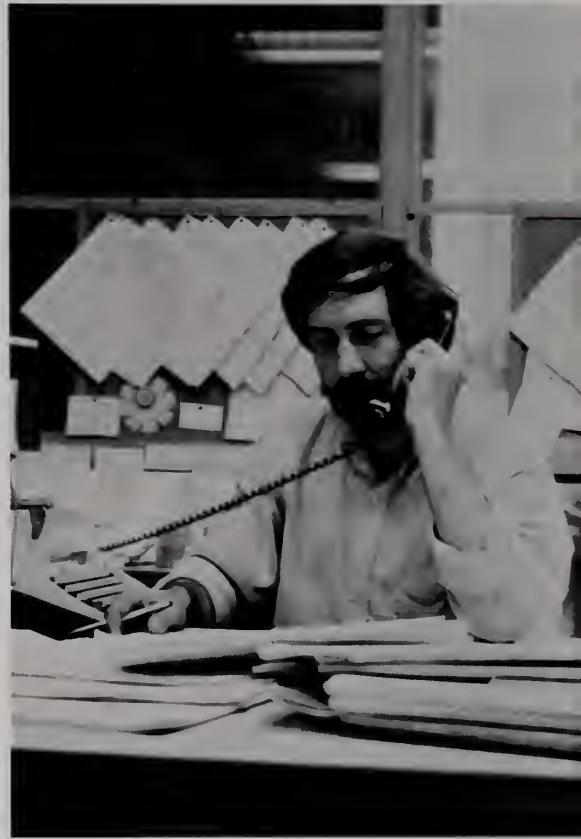

of our breathing -
space
& leaving undefined the bounds of inside and out...

To put down new roots
yet remembering the part the memories
(the old selves)

play in the growth of the new childhoods. The sea, so old,
still takes & gives, leaving
its character
(the wet rocks) unaltered; replacing sunworn sand
with new shells.

For we have now ourselves gone beyond the confusing void of words; we have voyaged now; we

empty
the ruins of our gains
into a larger
ocean;

an ocean that becomes more navigable and familiar as we drift even further away from beach & sun
because we have lived

as ourselves...
